Re: MUR 6402 (American Future Fund)

Dear Mr. Hughey,

On behalf of our client, American Future Fund (AFF), we request an extension of time to respond to the Federal Election Commission's letter notifying AFF that a complaint has been filed against it in the above-referenced matter. While the Commission's letter notifying AFF is dated October 27, 2010, the organization did not receive this letter until November 16, 2010.

The Commission's notification letter was addressed to Nicole Schlinger, who has not had a role with AFF for several years. Additionally, the letter was sent to a Post Office Box that AFF no longer uses. After the letter was forwarded to Ms. Schlinger at her current business address, she sent it to AFF's current President, Sandy Greiner, on November 16, 2010.

In recent months, AFF has filed numerous reports with the FEC. AFF's current and correct address (4225 Fleur Drive, #142, Des Moines, IA 50321) could have easily been found on any of these recent reports that are publicly available in the FEC's own databases.

Given the delay in receiving formal notification, through no fault of AFF, and the breadth of the issues raised in the Complaint, both factual and legal, we hereby request a 45-day extension of time to respond, beginning on the day of actual receipt of formal notification, or until December 31, 2010. This extension will permit us to review the complaint and the necessary materials, and then prepare an appropriate response. Accordingly, we respectfully request a 45-day extension of time to respond to the complaint in this matter.
